

LOCALES THAT HONOUR THE COMPANION STICKER FOR LEISURE AND TOURISM

Locale	Summary of activities
 Aquadôme 1411 Lapierre St. LaSalle (Québec) Tel.: (514) 367-6460 Web site: http://lasalle.ville.montreal.qc.ca/	The Aquadôme offers an indoor pool with outstanding natural light shining through glass panels, providing an open atmosphere while sheltered from the elements.
Morgan Arboretum 150 chemin des Pins Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue (Québec) Tel.: (514) 398-7811 Web site: www.morganarboretum.org	At the western tip of the Island of Montreal lies one of the city's most beautiful nature preserves. Well-marked trails wind their way through several kilometres of protected woodlands, providing nature-seekers the opportunity to observe a variety of wildlife.
Atrium Le 1000 de La Gauchetière 1000 de La Gauchetière St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 395-0555 Web site: www.le1000.com	Enjoy skating at its finest, winter or summer, right in the heart of downtown Montreal.
L'Autre Montréal 2000 St-Joseph boulevard E. suite 36 Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 521-7802 Web site: www.autremontreal.com	L'Autre Montréal offers guided tours of Montreal. The well-documented routes taken are steeped in tradition and presented with all the joie de vivre the city is famous for. Discover the history and heritage associated with the city's many municipalities, as well as what's happening today. (Tours for the general public are offered during the summer season only.)

Locale	Summary of activities
 Notre Dame Basilica 100 Notre-Dame St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 842-2925 Web site: www.basiliquenddm.org	Situated in the heart of Old Montreal, Notre Dame Basilica is a masterpiece of neogothic architecture. Renowned for the splendour of its interior design, each year the basilica attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors from around the world.
  Biodôme 4777 Pierre-De Coubertin ave. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 868-3000 Web site: www.biodome.qc.ca	Five separate ecosystems are re-created in this altogether unique museum: the Arctic, the Laurentian woodlands, the St. Lawrence waterways, the tropical rain forests of the Americas and the Antarctic region. Every step along the paths leading through the museum brings visitors in contact with the animal and plant life of the various habitats.
 Biosphère 160 chemin Tour-de-l'Isle île Sainte-Hélène Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 283-5000 Web site: www.biosphere.ec.qc.ca	This is the place to discover the wonders of the deep and to learn the facts of life concerning water, with emphasis placed on the importance, and indeed the necessity, of protecting this most precious natural resource. Visitors are brought in touch with the planet's major aquatic ecosystems and brought up to date on environmental issues concerning water sources.
Montreal on Wheels 27 de La Commune St. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 866-0633 Web site: www.caroulemontreal.com	Located in the heart of Old Montreal, Ça roule Montréal is a rental outlet for bicycles, tandem bicycles, rollerblades and scooters.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Centre des sciences de Montréal King-Edward wharf Montreal's Old Port 333 de La Commune St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 496-4724 Web site: www.centredessciencesdemontreal.com	An entertaining look at the world of science and technology using a variety of interactive displays.
  Centre d'histoire de Montréal 325 place d'Youville Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 872-3207 Web site: www2.ville.montreal.qc.ca/chm	Housed in an old fire station located on storied Place d'Youville, the centre traces the social, economic and cultural history of Montreal.
 Château Dufresne Museum 2929 Jeanne-d'Arc ave. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 259-9201 Web site: www.chateaudufresne.qc.ca	Designated a historic site in 1976, Château Dufresne's restoration mirrors its original design. Contained within its walls are the furniture collection, works of art and personal artifacts once belonging to the Dufresne family.
  Cinéma Beaubien 2396 Beaubien St. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 721-6060 Web site: www.cinemabeaubien.com	Cinéma Beaubien: a movie theatre offering a wide spectrum of films from around the corner and around the globe.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Ex-Centris Cinema 3536 St-Laurent boulevard Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 847-3536 Web site: www.ex-centris.com	Cinéma Ex-Centris is the home of the avant-garde, presenting a selection of local and international independent films as well as productions using the latest digital technology.
  Cinémathèque québécoise 335 De Maisonneuve boul. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 842-9768 Web site: www.cinematheque.qc.ca	Behind the modern screens, Cinémathèque québécoise is an institution dedicated to the preservation, documentation and appreciation of film and television productions through history, covering both national and international works.
  Cinérobotheque 1564 St-Denis St. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 496-6887 Web site: www.nfb.ca	Cinérobotheque is high-tech viewing, with a robot storing a series of videodisks available at the touch of a finger. By using the tactile screen, users can navigate through the National Film Board archives and view any chosen film at their own high-tech speed.
Cité Historia - Musée d'histoire du Sault-au-Récollet 10897 Dupont St. Montréal, (Québec) Tel.: (514) 280-4222 Web site: www.citehistoria.qc.ca	Cité Historia serves as cultural caretaker for the Sault-au-Récollet historic site, nestled in the magnificent Île-de-la-Visitation nature park. The organization spotlights the legacy of Sault-au-Récollet, including its cider house and mills.

Locale	Summary of activities
Club de quilles Verdun 642 de l'Église St. Verdun (Québec) Tel.: (514) 767-9914 Web site:	Club de quilles Verdun is a full-service bowling alley, complete with 32 lanes, a poolroom and a restaurant.
 Écomusée du Fier Monde  2050 Amherst St. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 528-8444 Web site: www.ecomusee.qc.ca	This museum of industrial and labour history was founded on the site of a luxurious public bathhouse built in the days of yore. From the finer points to the widest perspective on the subject, the eco-museum is a walk through time, down manual memory lane leading into the mechanized streets of the Industrial Revolution.
 Écomuseum An Educational Wildlife Park 21 125 chemin Sainte-Marie Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue (Québec) Tel.: (514) 457-9449 Web site: www.ecomuseum.ca	Overseen by the Natural Historical Society for the St. Lawrence Valley, the eco-museum is the ideal spot to observe and study flora and fauna in its natural surroundings.
 IMAX King-Edward Pier Montreal's Old Port 333 de La Commune St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 496-4724 Web site: www.centredessciencesdemontreal.com	This big-as-life, giant screen movie theatre features the latest and most spectacular 3-D films. The quality and clarity of the images leave audiences in a state of pure belief.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Insectarium  4581 Sherbrooke St. E. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 872-1400  Web site: www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/insectarium	The fascinating realm of the insect is on eye-bugging display, with amazing creatures from the five continents crawling the walls. See them, discover them, taste them!
 Botanical Garden  4101 Sherbrooke St. W. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 872-1400  Web site: www.ville.montreal.qc.ca/jardin	World-renowned for its breathtaking beauty, Montreal's Botanical Gardens is a living, breathing museum providing a happy home to plant life from every region of the Earth.
 Fur Trade at Lachine National Historic Site of Canada  1255 Saint-Joseph boulevard Lachine (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 637-7433  Web site: www.pc.gc.ca/fourrure/	On this site, history comes in the form of a small stone edifice built in 1803 that was once the departure and drop-off point for the fur-trading industry. Where once pelts hung as merchandise, today there is an exhibition depicting Montreal's role during a time of exploration and adventure.
 Sir George-Étienne-Cartier National Historic Site of Canada  458 Notre-Dame St. E. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 283-2282  Web site: www.pc.gc.ca/cartier	Here lived the famed Sir Georges-Étienne-Cartier, one of the builders of Canadian confederation, where now his life and work are celebrated. The site is also an example of the 19th century architecture favoured by Montreal's bourgeoisie.

Locale	Summary of activities
Maison Saint-Gabriel 2146 place Dublin Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 935-8136 Web site: www.maisonsaint-gabriel.qc.ca	The first settlers to New France left behind this tribute to their heritage. Located in Point St. Charles, visitors can explore a three-hundred-year-old house, a cobblestone barn and a magnificent garden.
 Musée d'art contemporain  185 Sainte-Catherine St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 847-6226 Web site: www.macm.org	This cultural complex is a meeting place for the visual and performing arts. One of the finest in Canada, the museum is dedicated to modern art forms, offering an eclectic array of shows and exhibitions through its permanent collection, ably aided and abetted by a series of touring exhibits. Artists from Quebec, the rest of Canada and countries abroad share wall space and inspiration.
 Montreal Museum of Fine Arts  1380 Sherbrooke St. W. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 285-2000 Web site: www.mbam.qc.ca	The first art museum founded in the city, its collections range from painting to sculpture to decorative arts to wherever the artistic spirit wanders. And between its permanent and touring exhibitions, impressionism, expressionism, modern art and all styles imagined by Man are represented.
 Musée des Hospitalières de l'Hôtel-Dieu de Montréal 201 avenue Des Pins W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 849-2919 Web site: www.museedeshospitalieres.qc.ca	The prevailing theme of this museum is the history surrounding the institutions Saint-Joseph and Hôtel-Dieu hospitals, along with its caregivers over the years. Permanent and temporary exhibits shed light on medical history and treasured religious artifacts.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Château Ramezay Museum 280 Notre-Dame St. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 861-3708 Web site: www.chateauramezay.qc.ca	As far back as 1929, Château Ramezay was declared a historic site and has since welcomed many visitors eager to learn more about the history trailing through Montreal, Quebec and Canada. An impressive permanent collection sits side-by-side with a variety of additional works and artifacts.
 Just for Laughs Museum 2111 Saint-Laurent boul. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 845-4000 Web site: www.hahaha.com/museum	Themed exhibitions frame the concept of humour and laughter as one of our civilization's most appreciated cultural phenomena. Smiles in the city.
 Musée Marc-Aurèle Fortin 118 Saint-Pierre St. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 845-6108 Web site: www.museemafortin.org	This museum is entirely dedicated to the works of Marc-Aurèle Fortin, noted landscape artist. In a style given life by this great painter, vivid scenes from across Quebec grace the canvas for all time.
 Marguerite Bourgeoys Museum 400 Saint-Paul St. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 282-8670 Web site: www.marguerite-bourgeoys.com	The life and work of Marguerite Bourgeoys, Montreal's first teacher, is duly honoured in the museum that bears her name.

Locale	Summary of activities
 McCord Museum  690 Sherbrooke St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 398-7100 Web site: www.musee-mccord.qc.ca	The McCord Museum is a focal point for Canadian history, preserving and presenting Canadiana through a series of exhibitions covering a wide range of national interests.
 Pointe-à-Callière Museum 350 Place Royale Angle de la Commune Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 872-9150 Web site: www.pacmusee.qc.ca	The archaeology and history of Montreal stands front and centre on a site dedicated to preserving our past for future generations. Literally hundreds of relics and artifacts are on display.
Stewart Museum at the Fort, Île Sainte-Hélène 20 chemin Tour de l'Île Île Sainte-Hélène Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 861-6701 Web site: www.stewart-museum.org	The influence of European culture on New France and the rest of North America is examined through a collection of objects, artifacts and documents.
Bonsecours Basin Skating Rink Old Montreal Tel.: (514) 496-7678 Web site: www.oldportofmontreal.com	Using temperature control for the ice, this outdoor skating rink is always ready to let visitors glide over its surface as they enjoy a view of the river and Old Montreal.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Parc Jean-Drapeau Beach Tel.: (514) 872-0198 Web site: www.parcjeandrapeau.com	The beach is a pleasure to behold and a pleasure to swim at, with “A” quality water in its lake at all times. An ideal spot for fun in the sun and all kinds of water activities.
 Planetarium 1000 Saint-Jacques St. W. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 872-4530 Web site: www.planetarium.montreal.qc.ca	The Planetarium features multimedia presentations that bring the fascinating fields of astronomy and space exploration down to Earth.
 La Ronde 22 chemin Macdonald Île Sainte-Hélène Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 397-2000 Web site: www.laronde.com	La Ronde amusement park is home to approximately 40 rides. Besides roller coasters, bumper cars and the like, there is always on-site entertainment for all ages, including shows presented throughout the summer season.
Salon de quilles Précision 11111 Notre-Dame St. E. Montréal (Québec) Tel.: (514) 645-4246 Web site:	A bowling alley for those who love the game, who enjoy a genial atmosphere, and who want to share it all with good friends.

Locale	Summary of activities
 Théâtre du Nouveau Monde  84 Sainte-Catherine St. W. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 878-7878  Web site: www.tnm.qc.ca	The theatre is one of North America's pre-eminent stages for French-language productions. A voice for francophone culture, the performances are of major works that contribute to artistic expression in a meaningful way, and are drawn from both national and international repertoires. (This locale recognizes the Companion Sticker for its regular programme only.)
 Théâtre Espace Go  4890 Saint-Laurent boulevard Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 845-5455  Web site: www.espacego.com	Espace Go is a theatre where form is constantly changing, shifting, moving, growing; where the emergence of ideas takes shape in the imagination.
 TOHU, La Cité des arts du cirque  2345 Jarry St. E. Montréal (Québec)  Tel.: (514) 374-3522  Web site: www.tohu.ca	The first circular show venue in Canada, TOHU offers an innovative programme founded on the circus arts. The venue borders a public square and includes an exhibition hall.

Montreal's Old Port and Parc Jean-Drapeau offer a variety of activities that honour the Companion Sticker for Leisure and Tourism. For further information, please visit our partners' web sites:

www.vieuxportdemontreal.com and www.parcjeandrapeau.com.

 New locales

Contact: Marie St-Laurent, program representative
AlterGo
(514) 933-2739, ext. 219

April 20, 2005